

Call for Abstracts

Annual Meeting of the American College of Epidemiology
Atlanta, GA, September 24-26, 2000

Poster presentations provide an opportunity for participants in the ACE annual meeting to share their work with interested colleagues in an informal, relaxed setting. Poster sessions are prominently scheduled during the meeting. Poster sessions will include poster discussion groups and oral presentations by some authors. Prizes will be awarded for the best student-prepared poster.

A SAMPLE ABSTRACT WITH COMPLETE TYPING INSTRUCTIONS

JF Smith, MC Jones, GL Brown, Department of Epidemiology, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, NC

PURPOSE: Your abstract will be published in the program and in The Annals of Epidemiology exactly as it appears in your original. ACE is not responsible for author errors. Abstracts may be reformatted for journal publication so that all abstracts appear in uniform type. By following the instructions, you will guarantee that your abstract will appear as you intended.

METHODS: All abstracts must fit in a 5 x 7 inch box (this size). No abstract form is needed. Both printed copies and a disk copy of your abstract are required. Use letter quality or laser printers only. Use Times Roman 12-point font, or equivalent (this type). Do not reduce or condense the type. Type your title in bold-face capital letters. Begin the author list and the affiliation of the presenting author on a new line, as shown. The name of the presenting author should be underlined. Skip one line and begin typing the abstract using the structured format and headings exactly as shown. Begin each section on a new line, with headings exactly as shown. Abstracts must be single-spaced. Mail four copies and a 3.5" clearly labeled disk with your abstract. Please indicate the word processing program and computer platform used.

RESULTS: Your abstract must be received by April 1, 2000. No FAX submissions will be accepted. If you wish to be notified of abstract receipt, include a self-addressed, stamped postcard for each submission. You will be notified of acceptance or rejection. Please include a stamped, self-addressed envelope for each submission.

CONCLUSION: To be considered, abstracts must be prepared following these instructions. If your abstract doesn't fit in a 5 x 7 box when reformatted using Times Roman 12-point type, it may be truncated.

Abstracts must be received by April 1, 2000. Mail with abstract submission form to ACE 2000, c/o American College of Epidemiology, 4101 Lake Boone Trail, Suite 201, Raleigh, NC 27607.
